AFTER SCHOOL OFFICERS AND SCHOOL BOCK MONOPOLIES .- The Ciark county (Ind.) Council has resolved "That the office of county superinten lent of schools is useless, and does, not advance the interests of common school education:" also, "That the school book monopoly is insufferable, and the greatest swindle perpetrated on our people." It recommends "the immediate establishment of a state publishing homse where books can be had at reasonable cost."

This advice is given because of opposition in some of the grunges to county parchasing agents and because of the tendency to centralize power, etc.
